Born in Sherman, Texas; raised in Dallas, Texas; live in Kansas City, Missouri; After completion of undergraduate studies at the Kansas City Art Institute, embarked on a four month tour of the western United States, creating and exhibiting several installations during mid to late 2007. These installations combine continued use of perspective with a relatively new trajectory in which people are invited to have their portrait taken within the installation. These portraits are then posted freely for viewing and download at <http://www.texjernigan.com/>
